

20th international Coating Symposium

September 8th, 2021 – virtual symposium

Dear Industry Professionals,

The international Coating Symposium has been a fixed event in the coating and printing industry since the year 2000.

Due to the current situation, the 20th international Coating Symposium is being converted to a virtual format. Detailed information and final agenda will follow until the middle of April.

Speakers from industry, institutes and R&D will present the latest developments around Coating, Printing and Laminating and we will show trials in our R&D centre on site.

We are pleased to invite you to the 20th international Coating Symposium on September 8th, 2021.

Please let us know if you are interested in attending this event by filling out the attached application form no later than September 1st, 2021 and returning it to: tsimone@coatema.de

We are looking forward to see you in September, your Coatema Team
